Georgia-Pacific and the Environment . . . What A Great Team

The Georgia-Pacific Monticello Mill is more than a paper mill. G-P cares about the air, land water, soil, wildlife and the natural resources.

G-P's goal is to be good environmental stewards. Working through the Wildlife Habitat Council's Wildlife at Work program, employees developed a long-term management plan to enhance wildlife on the mill property, employee morale and environmental awareness.

The Monticello mill is the first certified Wildlife Habitat Council site in the state of Mississippi.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am pleased to welcome you to Copiah-Lincoln Community College. I hope you enjoy your visit to our campus.

Co-Lin has a rich tradition of successful athletic programs. This tradition continues as our athletic teams and individual athletes excel in competitive arenas. Not only have our teams posted outstanding athletic accomplishments for the 2004-2005 season, but several teams and individual students have been recognized by the NJCAA for Academic All American honors! I invite our fans and guests to see details of those recognitions in the college's annual President's Report.

The Wolfpack Baseball team for the 2004-2005 season ended the season in an outstanding manner by winning the Region 23 Championship at Pearl River Community College and then winning the Super Regional Tournament at St. Catherine, Kentucky. The team represented Co-Lin and the Region in the NJCAA College World Series in Millington, Tennessee. The Wolfpack ended the season as the number 4 team in the country! Congratulations to Coaches Keith Case and Bryan Nobile and to the Wolfpack Baseball Team on a great finale to the 2004-2005 season!

Our coaching staff is dedicated to providing our athletes with the best training possible, and the opportunity for them to learn and practice good sportsmanship, while enjoying a variety of competitive sports. We deeply appreciate their dedication and hard work to make our athletic programs outstanding. We also have a number of volunteer coaches in several sports. We appreciate their dedication to the sport and to the student athletes who represent Co-Lin in the playing arena.

We offer our thanks to our students, family members and patrons for your support of our athletic programs. Your continued support of our athletic programs makes Co-Lin a very special place.

We extend a warm welcome to our visiting coaches and athletic teams. To our visitors, friends and colleagues, we hope you enjoy your stay, and we welcome you back at any time.

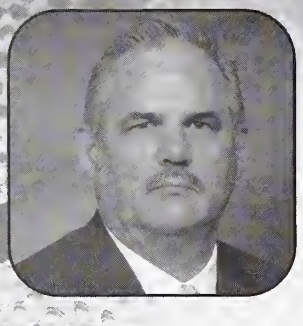
COACHING STAFF



Gwyn Young

Athletic Director,
Women's Basketball Coach

Serving the college as athletic director since 1989, Gwyn Young has been head coach of the Lady Wolves basketball team for 28 years. Since coming to Co-Lin, he has seen his team win title after title and has compiled a record of 623 wins and 194 losses to rank him in the top winningest NJCAA coaches in the nation.

In that time he has put the Lady Wolves on the map as one of the nation's premier basketball teams. Under Coach Young's direction, the Lady Wolves have won 17 regular season titles, 11 South Division Championships, 15 State Tournament Appearances, State Championships in 1993, 1997, 1999, 2002 and 2003; Runner-up State Championship Champions 1983, 1984 and 1998; Runner-up Region XXIII Championships in 1990, 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2004; Region XXIII Championships in 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2002; National Tournament appearances in 1989, 1993, 1997, and 2002. Coach Young's team finished fourth in the 1989 NJCAA National Tournament and has been consistently nationally ranked.

Coach Young was named NJCAA Region XXIII Coach of the Year in 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2002 and MACJC and MAC Coach of the Year in 1993 and 2001. He has been named The Clarion-Ledger's Community College Coach of the Year on numerous occasions.

Coach Young also serves as the college's Vice President of Student Services. He is a graduate of Copiah-Lincoln and was named to the college's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997. Coach Young received his bachelor's degree from Mississippi College and his master's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is married to the former Velesta Smith. They have two grown children Lane and Jessica and two grandchildren, Justin Hynum and Mailey Kate Young.

Glenn Davis

Head Football Coach

Glenn Davis begins his second year as head coach of the Wolves. Davis previously served at Co-Lin as offensive coordinator from 1995-96. During his two years at Co-Lin, he helped lead the team to a 15-5 overall record.

Davis is a 1982 graduate of Delta State University where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back and outside linebacker for the Statesmen. His other coaching stints include offensive coordinator at South Natchez High School (1982-85), graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1986-87), defensive backs and wide receivers coach at the University of North Alabama (1988-91), and quarterbacks, running backs, and wide receivers coach at Holmes Community College (1992-94). Since 1997 he has served as running backs coach at Mississippi State under former head coach Jackie Sherrill.

Under Davis' tutelage, the Bulldogs lead the Southeastern Conference in rushing in 2000 averaging 193.8 yards per game and ranked third in 1998 averaging 172 yards per game. He mentored Dicenzo Miller to Mississippi State's sixth-ever, 1,000-yard season in 2000 (1,005 yards) and James Johnson to the fourth and fifth-ever, 1,000-yard campaigns in 1997 (1,069 yards) and 1998 (1,383 yards).

He and his wife Minta, are the parents of two children, Ann Shelby and Micah.

Calvin M. Green

Assistant Football Coach

Calvin Green enters his 12th year on the Co-Lin football staff. Green coaches the defense, specializing with the secondary players. Several of the players he's coached have gone on to become NJCAA All-Americans, as well as NCAA Division I signees.

Prior to coming to Co-Lin in January 1994, Green served as assistant defensive back coach at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba under the former Mississippi State All-American and National League standout Tom Goode. Green also served as an assistant at Lawrence County High School.

Green graduated from Monticello High School where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back. He attended Copiah-Lincoln Junior College as a member of Coach Ray Ishee's 1985 State Champion and East Bowl Champion teams. In 1986, Green was chosen MACJC Most Valuable Defensive Back. He also received All-Region XXIII and All-State honors at defensive back and was selected to play in the MACJC All-Star Game.

He earned a B.S. degree in recreation from Alcorn State University. During his football career at Alcorn, Green earned letterman honors and in 1988 was a member of the "Nation's Best Secondary."

He is married to the former Falana Armstrong. They are the parents of two children, Farrod 8 and Sabaric 6.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading today is a unique combination of athleticism, entertainment and student leadership.

Cheerleading tryouts are held each April. Former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders starting in early March so they can be prepared for tryouts. Starting in May the new squad travels all over the surrounding counties teaching private camps to junior high cheerleaders. This continues until the middle of July. Each camp lasts anywhere from three to five days.

Co-Lin cheerleaders practice at least three to four times a week starting in May and continuing until school starts in August.

Co-Lin's cheerleaders have attended UCA cheer camp at the University of Alabama the last six years. They have won numerous awards and trophies year after year.

Cheering at Co-Lin is a year round sport and requires hard work and dedication.

BLUE WAVE SHOW BAND

On August 16, 1977 the world suffered the loss of Mississippi native, Elvis Presley, The King of Rock and Roll. While Elvis may have "left the building" over the years it has been reported that he has been spotted in several different locales, including Hook Stone Stadium. This year the Co-Lin Blue Wave Show Band presents the music of the King...of course, with a Blue Wave twist.

Audiences have come to expect high-energy drill with splashes of color, powerful drums and an awesome horn line from Blue Wave performances and this year's band promises to deliver more of the same.

The show opens with a beautiful arrangement of Are You Lonesome Tonight? followed by this year's ringmaster, Chase Dear, singing Viva Las Vegas. Watch for the beautiful choreography from the Colette's and Color Guard on the feature tune You're the Devil in Disguise. The percussion feature is next with A Little Less Conversation and the Show Band wraps up the performance with Elvis' beautiful ballad Can't Help Falling in Love.

Drum Major for the 2005-2006 Blue Wave Band is Katie Diamond of Brookhaven. The Emcee for this year's show is Chase Dear of Crystal Springs.

Serving as Head Colette is Emily Oberschmidt of Brookhaven. Colette captains are Jamie Stinson of Terry and Misty Barlow of Brookhaven. The Captain of the Color Guard is Leah Bush of Pinola. Co-Captains are Hollie Williamson and Amber Woods, both of Monticello. Percussion Captains are Ben Langston of Magee and Zak Tillotson of Vicksburg.

R. Shaw Furlow begins his fifth year as Co-Lin's Director of Bands. Assistant band directors are Chris Warren and Stanley Stewart. The Colettes and Color Guard are directed by Shelley Huskey.

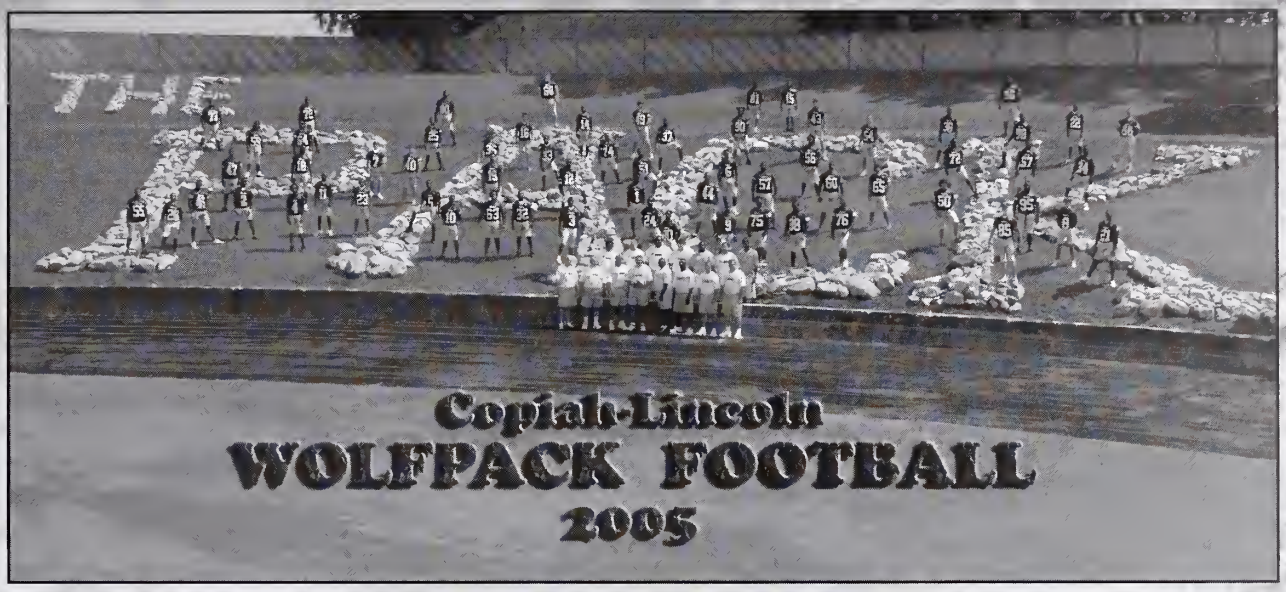
Wolfpack Football



Wolfpack young, more athletic in 2005

The Wolfpack looks to improve on last year's 1-8 record. This year's team is young, but more athletic in several areas. Competition has been fierce in the spring and the fall.

"Our players have worked extremely hard since the end of last season," said second-year Head Coach Glenn Davis. "We will be a better football team but time will tell if that means more wins."

Offensively, the Wolves will be very young. Inexperienced players will compete at the quarterback and running back positions. The running backs are coached by Dicenzo Miller.

Expected to compete for the quarterback position are two freshmen, Cedric Johnson of Americus, Georgia and Thomas Hinton of Prentiss.

Returning wide receivers include Lee Evans of Crystal Springs (NJCAA Pre-Season Honorable Mention All-American) and Donovan Dixon of Monticello. There will be plenty of competition from newcomers.

The offensive line will be anchored by J.D. Hamilton of Natchez (NJCAA Pre-Season First Team All-American) and Damien Jones of Crystal Springs. There will be stiff competition for the other three spots. The offensive line is coached by Carson Jeffers.

On defense, the Wolves should be much improved in all areas. The defensive line should be the strength of the team. Sophomores Rex Hill of Marathon, Florida; Ryland Wilson of Williamsburg, Virginia (NJCAA Pre-Season Second Team All-American); Michael Davis of Fayette (NJCAA Pre-Season Honorable Mention All-American); freshman Jessie Bowman of Brookhaven and Dean Stasher of Jackson are expected to anchor the defense.

At the linebacker position, Greg Porter of Hazlehurst, Luke Ogden of Natchez and David Berry of Brandon return with experience. Porter has moved from defensive end to linebacker this year. The linebackers are coached by Brett Shufelt.

In the secondary there will be more athleticism compared to last year's group. Charles McCrea of Hollywood, Florida (NJCAA Pre-Season Honorable Mention All-American) and Alton Dowdell of Belle Glade, Florida will be playing the corners. The safeties will be Michael Blackwell of Bogue Chitto and Fabian Taylor of Brandon. There will still be competition from the newcomers. The secondary is coached by Calvin Green.

The kicking game will be in the hands of Chris Blackwell of Meadville (NJCAA Pre-Season Honorable Mention All-American) and Nic Gunter of Wesson.

Davis said the South Division will be as tough as ever. The Wolves have four of the top 25 NJCAA pre-season teams on their schedule this season. Pearl River, the 2004 NJCAA National Champions, is ranked No. 1 in the NJCAA Pre-Season Poll. Also ranked in the top 10 are the Hinds Eagles. The Northwest Rangers are ranked No. 14 and the Jones Bobcats are ranked No. 23.

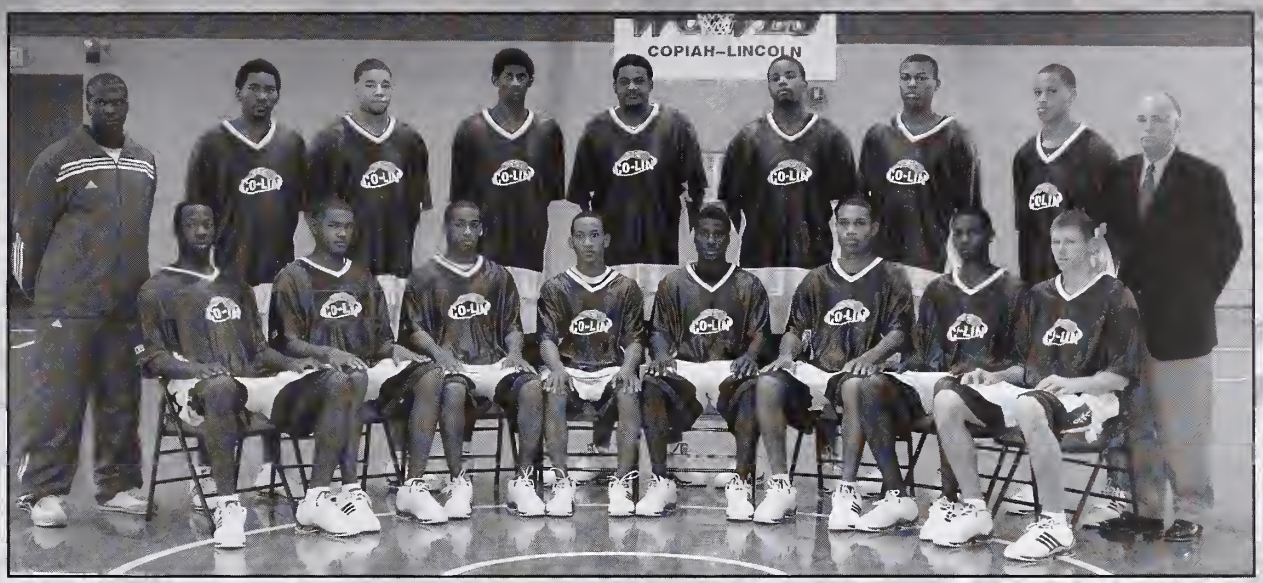
MEN'S BASKETBALL



Wolves looking for leadership in 2005-2006

After finishing the 2004-2005 campaign with a 21-9 record, a South State Championship and a State Runner-up finish, the Wolves return one full-time starter.

"I am looking forward to coaching and teaching these young men this upcoming season," said Head Men's Basketball Coach Dennis Sims.

Once again, the Wolves need to find the proper leadership from its sophomore class that is needed to help direct this team. One of the strengths is the returning experience from part-time starters to reserves from last year's squad. Returning is the team's second leading scorer Joe Holliday, a 6'2" guard from Lee High School in Baton Rouge, LA. Holliday averaged 14 points and 2.1 assists per game while being named First Team MACJC All-State. Joining Holliday are veteran forwards and Mendenhall High School products Tremaine Enoch (6'6") and Arvel Keys (6'4").

Enoch averaged 5 points and was the team leading rebounder at 7.2 per game. Keys averaged 5 points and 4.6 rebounds per game. Both were part-time starters for last year's squad.

Also returning is 6'5" forwards Lamar Hall and Jermaine Culver, both Brookhaven High School products. Hall averaged 4 points and 1.6 rebounds, while Culver averaged 1.2 rebounds per contest. Point guard Ivory Dishmon (5'8") from Clinton High School saw extensive playing time averaging 5.8 points per game while dishing out 3.2 assists.

New signees and transfers include Geric Anderson, a 6'0" guard from Raymond High School and Itawamba Community College; Nick Brooks a 6'6" forward from Murrah High School and Northeast Community College; Troy Turner a 6'3' guard from Capital High School in Baton Rouge, LA and Western Wyoming Community College; Joey Jackson a 6'3" guard from Mendenhall High School; Christian Marshall, a 6'10" center from Wingfield High School; Darrell Johnson a 6'1" guard from Mendenhall High School; and Jemario Martin a 6'0" guard from Crystal Springs High School.

Lost to graduation are Ledell Eackles (Honorable Mention NJCAA All-American, MACJC First Team All-State, MACJC All-Star Game, and NJCAA Region 23 All-Region Team); Dexter Middleton (MACJC All-Star Game); Brandon Caston (NJCAA All-Region 23 Tournament Team); Luke Lofton (Mississippi College signee); and Cedric Walker (Elizabeth City University signee).

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Lady Wolves looking for experience and leadership

The Lady Wolves return five players from last year's 15-10 team. Head Coach Gwyn Young is excited about the upcoming season with the return of these five and a talented freshman class.

The Lady Wolves will be looking to the s class to bring experience and leadership to the 2005-2006 team.

"We have no starters returning in this year's line-up, but I feel with the experience we have returning, a very good freshman class, players committing to work hard, and with leadership from our sophomores that we can compete in the tough MACJC conference," said Coach Young.

Returning sophomores include Kristian McCray and Anna Autman, both of Brookhaven High School, Jennifer Carter of Magee High School, Laquita Ard of North Pike High School, Aiesha Collins of Hazlehurst High School sat out last year with knee surgery and Ashley Murphy of Central Hinds Academy will be counted on to guide the team with leadership and experience.

Freshmen signees and walk-ons include Jordan Britt of Loyd Star, Angelica Burgess and Rededra Smith, both of Mendenhall; Kristian Davidson of Brookhaven Academy, Delequa Drake and Shariker Hargrave, both of Natchez High School; Alicia Kennedy and Lauren Smith, both of West Lincoln; Roneasa Garner of Lawrence County, Whitney Scott of Hahnville, LA, Erica Trahan of Broadmoor, LA; Dominique Whitfield and Corissa Tillman, both of Crystal Springs, and Nikki Williams of White Castle, LA are expected to provide immediate help for the 2005-2006 season.

Lost to graduation are Travalyn Smith (MACJC All-Star, MACJC All-State, NJCAA All-Region 23 and Mississippi College Signee), Gloria Lewis (Second Team All-State, MACJC All-Star and Mississippi College signee), Loretta Martin (Dillard University Signee), Jessica Melton (Mississippi College signee), Dana King, and Crystal Brown.

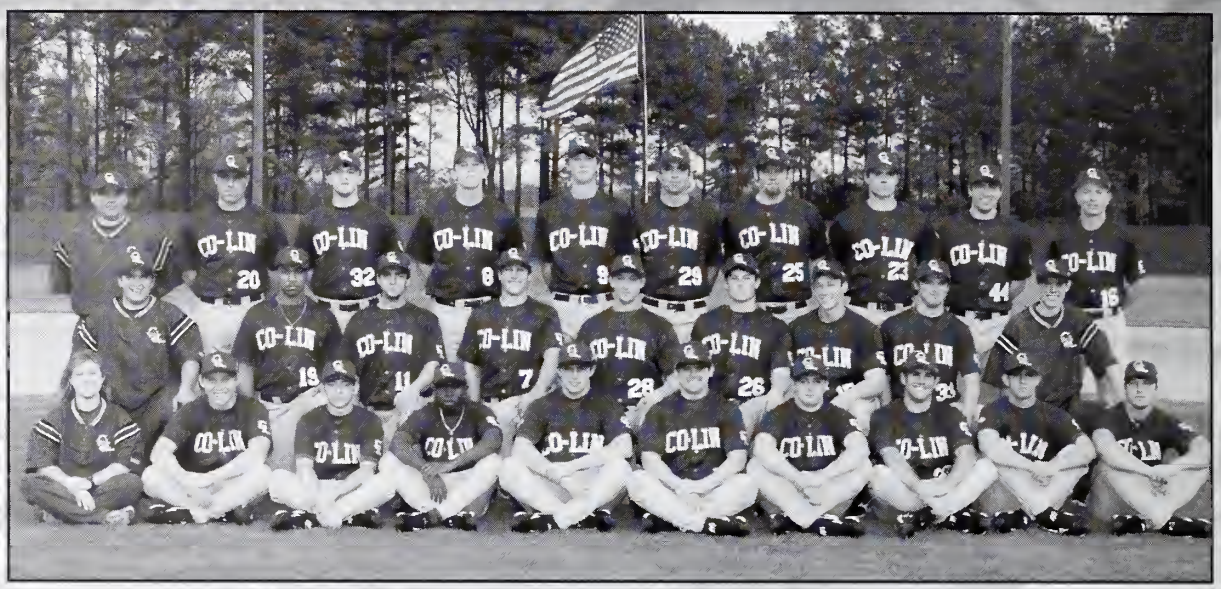
WOLFPACK BASEBALL



Wolfpack looking for return trip to World Series in 2006

It was a true Cinderella story in 2005 as the Wolfpack surprised everyone by winning the Region 23 South Division Championship, Region 23 South Central Super Regional Championship and earning a trip to the NJCAA Division II World Series.

With only 16 healthy players, the Wolfpack defeated five nationally ranked teams including No. 1 Pearl River, No. 2 Brookdale (NJ), No. 11 Itawamba, No. 14 Chesapeake College (MD), and No. 15 St. Catherine College (KY).

It was Head Coach Keith Case's second trip to the the World Series. The Wolfpack finished No. 4, the same as Case's talented 2000 squad.

In order to make a third trip to USA Stadium in Millington, Tennessee, Coach Case will have to replace two out of three outfield positions as well as two infield positions and three pitchers.

Lost to graduation are shortstop Patrick Williams (a Delta State signee, NJCAA All-World Series Team, NJCAA All-Region 23 First Team, MACJC All-State Second Team); right-hand pitcher Ryan Belanger (a University of Southern Mississippi signee, NJCAA All-World Series Team, NJCAA All-Region 23 Second team, MACJC All-State First Team); second baseman Jody Britt (a Mississippi College signee, NJCAA All-Region 23 Second Team); and right-hand pitcher Lance Deville (a Louisiana College signee). Also lost is right-hander Colby Beach (a Delta State signee), who sat out the 2005 season with a medical redshirt.

Returning infielders include catcher Matthew Schexnayder (MACJC All-State Second Team) and third baseman Garrett Jones. Josh Logan, who played centerfield in 2005 will move to the shortstop in 2006.

Competing for two infield positions are Joel Hurt (a 2005 medical redshirt), Dane Orders of Simpson Academy, Todd Siders of Oak Grove High School (William Carey College) and Cole Hodges of Brookhaven Academy.

Returning to the pitching staff are Derek Thompson, Will Buckels, and Matthew Tubbs. Justin Smith and Hunter Posey return after sitting out the 2005 season as medical redshirts. Joseph Langham will miss the 2006 season as he recovers from elbow surgery.

Coach Case will look to a promising freshman class of Ryan Hoben of Porter's Chapel Academy, James Landry of Patterson High School (LA), Derek Deville of Wilkinson County Christian Academy, Kyle Fairley of Manchester Academy, Brandon Chretien of Comeaux High School (LA), Douglas Davis of Adams County Christian Academy, and Brett Hartfield of Purvis High School.

Rightfielder Xavier Qualls is the lone returning starter in the outfield. Looking to compete for a position are Ryan Williams of Wesson High School, Kory Moore of Magee High School (Air Force Academy) and Michael Thompson of Lawrence County High School.

Bryan Nobile returns for his third season as an assistant to Coach Case. Jerry Brewer joins the Wolfpack coaching staff as a volunteer coach. He will be working with the catchers and hitters.

Dennis White returns for his 14th season as the public address announcer.

LADY WOLVES SOFTBALL

Lady Wolves look strong in 2006

Experienced ss combined with a solid class of incoming freshmen give the Lady Wolves a strong outlook for the 2006 season.

Key returnees are NJCAA All-Region 23 selections pitcher Emily Horne of Pearland, Texas and catcher Megan Bateman of Brookhaven. They will be supported by MACJC All-State infielders Jackie Stowe of Copiah Academy and Amber Beeson of Brookhaven Academy and utility player Holly Pyles of Copiah Academy.

This group was instrumental in the success the Lady Wolves enjoyed last year. Injuries to key players were a factor in 2005. Staying healthy will be a key in 2006.

Incoming freshmen that will have to battle for playing time include Candace Braxton of Bogue Chitto, Kaylin Burke of Enterprise, Brooke Caston of Amite School Center, Annie Selman of Copiah Academy, Lauren Smith of West Lincoln, Allyson Wallace of Brookhaven High School, Lacey Williams of Copiah Academy, Jessica Hart of Brookhaven Academy, Erin Douglass of Katy, Texas, and Kady King of Parklane Academy.

They will have an opportunity to contribute immediately. All come from successful high school programs and understand what it will take to be able to compete at the college level.

The Lady Wolves had the best offense in school history in 2005, setting school records in runs per game (7), team batting average (.370) and home runs (150).

"Pitching is going to be our key," said Head Coach Allen Kent. Horne is the team's returning pitcher. Stowe saw limited action last year. "Freshman Erin Douglass will be a welcome addition to our pitching staff," said Kent.

Horne saw a majority of the mound duty last year and shattered the school record for strikeouts with 167. The Lady Wolves pitching staff also set a school record for earned run average (1.13) and opponents batting average (.184).

Men's tennis team NJCAA 2005 Academic Team of the Year

The 2005 men's tennis team had an exceptional year as they were named the NJCAA No. 1 Academic Team of the Year and No. 1 Intercollegiate Tennis Association All-Academic Team. They led all sports with a 3.646 cumulative team grade point average.

Two ss Chris Collins of Brookhaven and Zac Erwin of Mendenhall were named NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-Americans with grade point averages of 3.780 and 3.882 respectively. Five members of the team, Collins, Erwin, Dino Lovrin, Goran Samodajev and Cory Lambert received National Intercollegiate Tennis Association Scholar Athlete Awards.

On the court, the Wolves finished with a 10-3 record and fifth in the MACJC State/Region 23 Tournament. Four or five members of the 2005 team are expected to return in 2006. Goran Samodajev will return at No. 1 singles. State finalist at No. 2 last spring Dino Lovrin returns. Also expected to return are No. 3 Cory Lambert of Monticello, No. 6 Corey Gemelli of Wesson, and Caleb DeBold of Monticello, who played No. 1 doubles in 2004. Bruce Cameron is also set to return after playing No. 1 singles and doubles in 2004. Cameron sat out the 2005 season.

Newcomers include Scott Stormo, a Monticello policeman, who once teamed with Cameron as one of the best adult doubles teams in Mississippi; Pete Nguyen of New Orleans, Jeffrey Kintner and Phillip Hammond, both of Brookhaven High School; Toby Warren and Ian Smith, both of West Lincoln, in addition to some other district high school players.

"This should be a very interesting year," said Coach Mike McIntyre. "We're trying to get the 'numbers' back up in the fall to develop a state/regional contender for spring."

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Experienced Lady Wolves look strong in 2006

Former Co-Lin player and MACJC State/Region 23 champion Holli Adams of Brookhaven returns to coach the Lady Wolves in 2006. Adams replaces veteran coach Brenda Smith who retired from coaching after the 2005 season.

The 2005 Lady Wolves finished with a record of 8-2 and fourth in the MACJC State/Region 23 Tournament. The team finished as the No. 6 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year in women's tennis.

Lost to graduation was NJCAA Academic All-American Brittany Weeks of Brookhaven.

Adams inherits a group of four sophomores including 2005 MACJC/Region 23 State Champion in No. 5 singles Channelle McCrory of Wesson. Also returning are Lyndsay Franklin of Brookhaven (No. 1 singles), Leah Bush of Braxton and Brittany Smith of Wesson.

Incoming freshmen include Kasey Parker of Copiah Academy, two-time Most Valuable Player and MPSA state semi-finalist in girls doubles and Shara Johnson of Brookhaven, a two-sport athlete at Loyd Star. Johnson played fast-pitch softball and was an All-District basketball player.

Adams played No. 2 doubles and No. 3 singles at Mississippi College where she was team captain. She received the Choctaw Award and was named American Southwest Conference All-East First Team, All-ASC Tournament First Team, Newcomer of the Year, ASC Eastern Player of the Week and Academic All-ASC Team.

She was a member of the 2002 MACJC State and NJCAA Region 23 Championship Team at Copiah-Lincoln. In 2003, Adams won the state championship at No. 1 doubles and No. 2 singles. In 2004 she won the state championship at No. 4 singles and No. 2 doubles. She was a NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American in 2004 and inducted in Co-Lin's Hall of Fame.

Adams has taught tennis privately and with the Brookhaven Recreation Department.

MEN'S SOCCER

Wolves ready to make statement in 2005

The Copiah-Lincoln men's soccer team has made vast improvements each year and the 2005 season will be no different. With only seven returnees from last year's team, the young Wolves are ready to make a statement this season.

Returning for the Wolves this season are Chase Evans of McCall Creek, Corey Gemelli, Michael Newman and Matthew Owens, all of Wesson, Michael Ratliff of Natchez, Stephen Scott of Braxton and Ronald Walters of Crystal Springs.

Many of the high schools in the Co-Lin district have only recently implemented soccer programs. Only two towns in the district have recreational soccer programs in their park district.

Newcomers include Tyler Alexander, Jeffrey Kitner, Giles Langston, Cameron Newell, and Thomas Nguyen, all of Brookhaven High School; Demetrious Berry, Cody Calcote, Justin Stamps, and Bradley Young, all of Lawrence County High School; Brad Buckles of Brookhaven Academy; Brandon Goldsmith of Franklin County High School; Josh Neely of Mendenhall High School; Stephen Scott of McLaurin High School; Scott Farmer and James Ferrell, both of Loyd Star High School and Chris Slayton of Terry.

Second year head coach Wayne Wallace has 16 years of coaching experience with the Brookhaven Recreation Department.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Young Lady Wolves look to make mark in 2005

With only two returning sophomores, the Lady Wolves will be young and inexperienced, but Coach Andy Diaz-Moreno has high expectations for 2005.

The Lady Wolves will look to Maggie Sellers of Brookhaven (Loyd Star) and Mattie Alexander of Summit (North Pike) for leadership and experience this season.

Newcomers include Candice Adams (Copiah Academy), Jessica Hawkins (Crystal Springs High School), Charcinda Glasper (Crystal Springs High School), Stephanie Presley (Union Academy), Dimonah Brown (Crystal Springs High School), Shara Johnson of Brookhaven (Loyd Star), Casey Dickerson of McComb (North Pike), Amanda Hardwick of Utica (Hinds A.H. S.), Lindsey Jones of Meadville (Franklin County High School, and Brittany Martin of McCall Creek (Franklin County High School).

Coach Diaz-Moreno begins his second year as head coach of the Lady Wolves. He served as an assistant coach for two years.

A native of Havana, Cuba, he began playing soccer at age three. He traveled alone to the United States by shrimp boat at age 14. Diaz-Moreno played soccer and competed in track and field in junior and senior high school. After high school, he joined a semi-pro soccer team on the Florida International University Campus in Miami and was asked to tryout for the Florida Strikers.

Diaz-Moreno began coaching soccer at Boys Town in Miami. In the fall of 2000, he moved to McCall Creek with his family. He also coaches the "Soccerfest" Soccer Camp at the Brookhaven Sports Complex and has also coached the Wesson High School girls soccer team in past years.

WOLFPACK GOLF

Wolves are young and talented in 2006

After finishing third in the NJCAA Region 23/MACJC State Tournament in only their first year of competition in Division II, the Co-Lin Wolves look to improve in 2006. The Wolves placed third in three tournaments and fourth in four tournaments.

Lost to graduation are NJCAA All-Region 23 golfer Dale Sykes of Monticello, a Delta State University signee. Sykes finished second in the Region 23/MACJC State Tournament and represented the Wolves in the NJCAA National Golf Tournament in Scottsboro, Alabama.

Also lost to graduation are Craig Smith of Brookhaven and Eric Ferren of Brandon.

The Wolves will depend on lone returning sophomore Leland Hinton of Wesson for experience and leadership.

A strong incoming class of freshmen includes Blake Windham of Loyd Star High School, Brandon Goldsmith and Barron Jones, both of Franklin County; Grant McDonnieal and Phillip Hammond, both of Brookhaven High School; and J.R. McPhate of Adams County Christian School.

Justin Smith begins his third year as coach of the Wolves.
